

Servicing Disclosure Statement

Corona Mortgage
400 South Ramona #116
Corona, CA 92879

Notice to first lien mortgage loan applicants: The right to collect your mortgage loan payments may be transferred. Federal law gives you certain related rights. If your loan is made, save this statement with your loan documents. Sign the acknowledgement at the end of this statement only if you understand its contents.

Because you are applying for a mortgage loan covered by the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) (12 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.) you have certain rights under that Federal law. This statement tells you about these rights. It also tells you what the chances are that the servicing for this loan may be transferred to a different loan servicer. Servicing refers to collecting your principle, interest and escrow account payments, if any. If your loan servicer changes, there are certain procedures that must be followed. This statement generally explains those procedures.

Transfer Practices and Requirements

If the servicing of your loan is assigned, sold, or transferred to a new servicer, you must be given written notice of the transfer. The present loan servicer must send you notice in writing if the assignment, sale or transfer of the servicing not less than 15 days before the effective date of the transfer. The new loan servicer must also send you notice within 15 days after the effective date of the transfer. The present servicer and the new servicer may combine this information in one notice, so long as the notice is sent to you 15 days before the effective date of transfer. The 15 day period is not applicable if a notice of prospective transfer is provide to you at settlement. The law allows a delay in the time (not more than 30 days after a transfer) for servicers to notify you, upon the occurrence of the certain business emergencies.

Notices must contain certain information. They must contain the effective date of transfer of the servicing of your loan to the new servicer, the name, address, and toll free or collect call telephone number of the new servicer, and toll free or collect call telephone numbers of the persons or department for both your present servicer and your new servicer to answer your questions. During the 60 day period following the effective date of the transfer of the loan servicing, a loan payment received by your old servicer before its due date may not be treated by the new loan servicer as late, and a late fee may not be imposed on you.

Complaint Resolution

Section 6 of RESPA (12 U.S.C. 2605) gives you certain consumer rights, whether or not your loan servicing is transferred. If you send a "qualified written request" to your loan servicer, your servicer must provide you with a written acknowledgement within 20 Business Days of receipt of your request. A "qualified written request" is a written correspondence, other than on a payment coupon or other payment medium supplied by the servicer, which includes your name and account number, and information regarding your request. Not later than 60 Business Days after receiving your request, your servicer must make any appropriate corrections to your account, or must provide you with a written clarification regarding any dispute. During this 60 Business Day period, your servicer may not provide information to a consumer reporting agency concerning any overdue payment related to such period or qualified written request. A Business Day is any day, excluding public holidays (State or Federal), Saturday and Sunday.

Damages and Costs

Section 6 of RESPA also provides for damages and costs for individuals or classes of individuals in circumstances where servicers are shown to have violated the requirements of that Section.

Servicing Transfer Estimated

1. The following is the best estimate of what will happen to the servicing of your mortgage loan:

We do not service mortgage loans and we have not serviced mortgage loans in the past three (3) years

2. For all the first lien mortgage loans that we make in the 12 month period after your mortgage loan is funded, we estimate that the percentage of such loans for which we will transfer servicing is 100%. This estimate does include assignments, sales or transfers to affiliates or subsidiaries. This is only our best estimate and is not binding. Business conditions and other circumstances may affect our future transferring decisions.

3. This is our record of transferring the servicing of the first lien mortgage loans we have made in the past:

2002 – 100% 2003 – 100% 2004 – 100% This information does include assignments, sales, or transfers to affiliates and subsidiaries.
